PRESS RELEASE - Effetti - Weddings in Italy

Pisa " December 7th, 2009 Effetti " weddings in Italy wedding planner agency, announces the opening of three new wedding locations: Venice and the Alps " Valtellina, and the Lake Como, and the new website's layout.

Effetti, together with the launch of the new website's layout <http://www.weddingintuscany.info> announces the opening of two other destinations for weddings in Italy. After Tuscany, Effetti can offer the same level of service for couples wishing to get married in Venice and in the Alps, particularly in Valtellina, or on the Lake Como. The addition of the three additional areas is available thanks to new planners and coordinators and new partnerships that Effetti opened up. The new coordinators have been working on the wedding and event business for long time. The new planners also support the Italia-Australia (<http://www.italyaustralia.com.au/>) association providing local services to Australian citizens for years. The cooperation with the Venice team enriches the offer of an American planner and a new stunning photographer.

Destination weddings are in everyone's dreams, and Italy is one of the most romantic places in the world.

About Effetti weddings in Italy

Effetti is based in Italy and grants expertise of over a decade of marketing, communication and purchase experience in multinational companies plus a rigorous selection of planners and partners. Effetti's team leverages best-in-class experts in each sector to offer any services at best available prices, keeping quality at the highest levels.

Effetti offers support and consultancy services plus access to all that is necessary for destination weddings, including paper work and translations.

Effetti is also able to offer personal wedding web sites for couples. This service is offered to help guests and friends to follow couples that have decided to tie the knot away from their native country or when bride or groom are native of different places. This is fundamental to coordinate guests from all over the world and let friends that cannot attend have all the details.
